The start on the nose is complex and enticing, with plenty of fruit and spices supported by an earthy, deep undertone and even some autumn leaves in the background. The palate starts with wood spices, including cinnamon and nutmeg. It is mellow and balanced, with layers of fine flavours and a brilliant texture, ending in a long, lingering finish. A great classic and a truly fine wine.

An expressive, aromatic start. The plethora of scents on the nose includes fresh hay, candied tropical fruits, zesty citrus peel and juicy stone fruits. It is complex and well balanced, with a nice mineral edge and a refreshing, zesty acidity supporting a big, creamy, fruity palate. This is a bigger, riper style, with a lot of flavours and fine aromas.
